

Accor and Jet Airways team up for frequent flyer mileage accrual

Members of JetPrivilege Programme to earn JPMiles when staying in Accor hotels around the world

Members of the frequent flyer program of Jet Airways – JetPrivilege may now earn up to 500* JPMiles when staying with Accor Hotels and Resorts around the world.

JetPrivilege Members will earn 500* JPMiles per stay with Sofitel, Pullman and MGallery Hotels, 250* JPMiles per stay with Novotel, Grand Mercure and Mercure Hotels. Selected ibis Hotels within Asia are also participating at 150 JPMiles per stay.

As part of a generous launch promotion, with effect until September 30, 2009; JetPrivilege members who stay at Accor Hotels and Resorts for a minimum of two consecutive nights will be rewarded with bonus JP Miles.

In Sofitel, Pullman and MGallery Hotels, members will earn a total of 2000 JPMiles per stay, while in Grand Mercure, Novotel, and Mercure Hotels, members will earn triple JPMiles – 750 JPMiles per stay. At selected ibis Hotels in Asia, double JPMiles are applicable – 300 JPMiles per stay.

Accor has over 1,450 hotels globally participating in the program.

Graham Wilson –Vice President Marketing, Accor Asia Pacific said “Accor is delighted to be partnering with Jet Airways, in offering their frequent flying customers the opportunity to earn miles with Accor hotels around the world. Jet Airways has an extensive domestic network in India and a growing number of international and regional routes which are well serviced by Accor’s network of hotels.”

Mr. Wolfgang Prock-Schauer-Chief Executive Officer, Jet Airways, added, “We are confident that this partnership with Accor will be a long and mutually-rewarding one, given both companies’ shared commitment to customer service excellence. With the addition of Accor to our growing list of worldwide hotel partners, JetPrivilege members may now choose from a wide range of accommodation options, catering to various price points, to further enhance their travel experience.”
